Hope you brought your safe cracking tools, because these cars have combination locks on them. Also, the combination locks don't work. Failure, from start to finish. <https://youtu.be/LkgrZn2Rbg0>. Have you played any Elder Scrolls game and thought to yourself "Oh man, that lockpicking mini-game was INTENSE!""? Have you played a racing game such as Forza or Project Cars and found yourself thinking "If only I could look at these cars in dim and dingy lighting, and at a much lesser quality!""? Played Hitman or Splinter Cell and had blissful dreams over those doorways you opened up while being a ghost in the wind? Does remembering your bank pin number, and then punching it into the ATM keypad arouse you? If so, then this game has you covered. But, should you spend those $10 on it? No! Burn those bills and toast a marshmallow with them if you have $10 and want something to do with it. Trust me, that will give you more enjoyment than this will.. There is no point in this game..
